

Introducing the Gerstner Center for Learning as your Center For Excellence

The IBM Gerstner Center for Learning is excited to announce, that we have been recognized as a Center for Excellence property based on our unwavering dedication to driving excellence within our FLIK Conference Center.

The Flik Hospitality Centers for Excellence program represents "Best in Class" venues that consistently exceed stringent requirements year after year.

Now that we have been certified, our team understands that we will need to continue to train and drive a higher level of efficiency, and innovation to ensure we uphold our status as a leader in service and operational excellence.
